INSTRUCTIONS ON PERSONAL INFORMATION MANAGEMENT SYSTEM (PIMS)

Personal Information Management System (PIMS) is a web-enabled personnel management system under the State Government with the purpose of tracking and recording the service records of all government employees from the date of their joining into service till they retire.

In order to promote e-governance initiative and to provide transparency of the employees' profiles, the State Government has decided to make basic PIMS data public. Further, State Government employees or the public will be able to access the 10 select open fields of government employees' profiles from the website of PIMS, P&AR Department by logging in at www.nglemployeedirectory.in. Discrepancies in data, if any, must be brought to the notice of the PIMS Cell, P&AR Department through the concerned departmental Nodal Officer only.

An Office Memorandum from P&AR informed that the departments, while requisitioning posts to NPSC/ Departmental Recruitment Board (DRB), should indicate the name and employee code of PIMS against each vacancy, or enclose a copy of the post creation order in the case of new posts in the requisition format. The NPSC/DRB in turn must use the said code while making recommendations for appointment to the department concerned. It also re-iterated to all departments that all service related orders issued by any department such as appointment, transfer and posting, promotion, retirement orders must reflect the PIMS code of the employee and a copy must be endorsed to the PIMS Cell, P&AR Department.

It is observed that many new HoDs need to get themselves familiarized with PIMS for better governance. The PIMS Cell in each Directorate should also be strengthened and the Nodal Officers in-charge should ensure that the employees' data are up-to-date in the system.

Further, as per Office Memorandum No. AR-5/ASSO/98 dated 06-06-2016, appointment on contractual basis, ad-hoc, fixed, casual, work-charged etc. are banned w.e.f. 6th June 2016. However, many departments are still sending such proposals for registering in the PIMS in defiance to the said Office Memorandum. It is, therefore, reiterated that the PIMS Cell shall not entertain such appointments for registration.

FIRST IN-SERVICE VETERINARIAN IN INDIA INDUCTED INTO IAS

The Confederation of All Nagaland State Services Employees' Association (CANSSEA) organized a felicitation programme for Dr. Zasekuolie Chusi, IAS at Hotel Japfü, Kohima on 4th July 2019 in recognition of his distinctive achievement for being inducted into the Indian Administrative Service (IAS), the first in-service Veterinarian in India.

Dr. Chusi appealed to the CANSSEA and other service associations to put their heads and mind together to fight for their demands and their rights, adding that we need to change the mindset and attitude to come forward and shoulder the responsibilities. He also urged them to focus and perform their duties and obligations to the public and the Government.

Transport Commissioner, Elias T. Lotha in his felicitation message mentioned that it is a defining moment in the history of CANSSEA as the Government has been very considerate and has acted with a great sense of justice by conferring the IAS post to a member of State Non-Civil Services Department. The struggle for more IAS posts for State Non-Civil Services Departments has been long, and will continue for more years to come, he added.

Short speeches were delivered by representatives from NSSA and NF & ASA. A felicitation certificate was also awarded to Milan Rajbanshi, President of All India Government Drivers Federation (AIGDF) Central Committee, New Delhi for being the first Nagaland Government Driver to hold the prestigious post at the national level. Dr. Ilang, Deputy Director, Animal Husbandry & Veterinary Services, Vice President of Indian Veterinary Association and Advisor to Pashu Chikitsak Mahasang (Veterinary Service Association) was also awarded with a certificate for being the first Naga Veterinarian to hold the prestigious post at the national level.

DZÜKOU TOURISTS URGED TO STRICTLY COMPLY WITH 'PLASTIC FREE DZÜKOU'

In keeping with the objective of making Dzükou plastic free, strict checking of plastic items carried into Dzükou is being done to ensure that no plastics will be discarded in Dzükou, at the two entry points of Viswema and Jakhama. Notice board detailing the guidelines to be followed are being put up at entry point and Dzükou base camp by the Southern Angami Youth Organisation (SAYO).

Dzükou valley was declared plastic free zone on 5th June 2019. SAYO President, Zakieito Tsükrü appreciating the marked improvement this has brought, said that more needs to be done especially in and around the base camp. Tsükrü also informed that in February 2019, SAYO campaigned and held meetings to totally ban hunting with the Village Councils, VDB, Women Society and all stakeholders of Southern Angami villages. To prohibit hunting and burning of forest fires, SAYO with help from the Environment, Forest & Climate Change Department has put up notice board along the National Highway.

Keduvi Zhotso, Legal Advisor, SAYO said there is no restriction for tourists to visit Dzükou and clarified that the checkings are not to create apprehensions and requested the tourists to follow the guidelines. Viswema and Jakhama routes were made the two Dzükou entry point in southern area to ensure the safety of tourists.

TULUNI FESTIVAL CELEBRATED AT ZUNHEBOTO

Tuluni festival, organised by Zunheboto Area Public Organisation (ZAPO) was celebrated at Zunheboto Town Hall with Advisor, School Education, K.T. Sukhalu as Tuluni Papuh or Tuluni Father on 8th July 2019. Various cultural activities like folk dance, folk song, top spinning competition, recitation of Tuluni poem or proverbs etc. were the highlights of the programme.

K. T. Sukhalu in his speech said that in the past, cultural traditions were given utmost importance but with the coming of western culture in our society, we have forgotten our cultural values, customs and traditions. In this regard, he urged the younger generation to know one's customs, culture and traditions. The Advisor also directed the GBs to be strict in case of school education by not entertaining any proxy teachers in their respective jurisdictions and not to compromise on the students' future. He also requested the landowners not to hinder developmental activities by seeking land compensation but to cooperate with the Government as it is for the benefit of everyone. Grand Tuluni feast followed the formal programme.

Stating that all are equal, Governor Acharya encouraged the students to focus on their talents and to work towards achieving their goals. Stating that education is the pillar of development, the Governor encouraged students to take their studies with all seriousness and also emphasised on the importance of taking skill courses and to take up the challenge of being an entrepreneur.

Commandant, NAPTC, Ben Longkumer while giving a brief highlight, stated that NAPTC has a vibrant and active Family Welfare Association with the wife of the Commandant as the President. He stated that the association aims at the holistic development and fulfilment of social obligation through various welfare measures, social empowerment and skill building of spouses and dependents of the unit personnels. He stated that an exposure and sightseeing trip to Kohima was planned as a welfare initiative and as a positive group activity for the children of NAPTC during their summer holidays.

Earth Day Network extends its support for a Plastic Free Dzükou

The recent declaration of 'Plastic Free Zone Dzükou,' an initiative of Southern Angami Youth Organisation (SAYO), finds support from Earth Day Network (EDN), a global environment NGO that grew out of the first Earth Day (22nd April 1970) and today engages with over 50,000 organisations in around 190+ countries.

EDN Regional Director, South Asia, Karuna A. Singh congratulated SAYO on the work being done in declaring Dzükou valley as plastic free zone, situated in one of the world's biodiversity hotspots. 'We would be happy to share resource materials for joint programmes toward this end,' Singh wrote in an email sent to SAYO President on 10th July 2019.

In 2010, EDN opened its office in India. Retired PCCF & HoFF of Nagaland, M. Lokeswara Rao, IFS (Rtd.) is presently the Director, EDN, India 'Protect Our Species.' Every year, EDN announces the Earth Day Theme for global focus with this year's theme as 'Protect Our Species.' Works have begun on protecting the critically endangered Hangul in Kashmir and the Gangetic Dolphin in Varanasi. 2020 will mark EDN's 50th anniversary and organisations such as the Smithsonian Institution, National Geographic, NASA, the UN and UNEP (among others) have already formulated plans for its commemoration.

Luminaries such as Stacey Sher, Lisa Jackson, Richard Branson, Leonardo Dicaprio, William D. Ruckelshaus and Anil Kapoor are among the Global Advisory Committee of EDN.

CONSUMER AWARENESS PROGRAMME HELD ACROSS THE STATE

KOHIMA:

The Consumer Awareness programme was held at the Conference Hall of the District Planning and Development Board (DPDB), Kohima on 15th July 2019 with Advisor, Rural Development and Chairman, DPDB, Kohima, Dr. Neikiesalie Nicky Kire as the Guest of Honour.

"Every LPG consumer has an insurance, however most of the consumers are not aware of it," pointed out Dr. Nicky, and requested the concerned department to check the details and spread awareness on the insurance. He said that coinciding with the DPDB meeting, the programme was an opportunity for the DPDB members to be enlightened on the rights of the consumers under the Consumer Protection Act and further requested them not to keep it within themselves but to create awareness in their own ways across different people, colonies and villages in the district.

Longshithung Ezung, Member Secretary, Nagaland Legal Services Authority (NLSA) speaking as the resource person, said that the Consumer Protection Act was enacted in 1986 with the objective of providing better protection of consumers' interests. Under the Act, Ezung stated that consumers have 'Right to Safety' where they should be protected against products that are hazardous to life and property; 'Right to Information' where a consumer should be informed about the product packaging; 'Right to Choose' where a consumer has the right to select any goods or services when he buys it and should not be pressured into buying or using only one product or service and monopolistic practices are not legal; 'Right to be Heard' where a consumer has the right to complaint against his purchased product if found dissatisfactory, which should be addressed in an appropriate timeframe; 'Right to Seek Redressal' where a consumer has the right to get the product replaced, compensated or refund of the price paid, in case the product fails to satisfy the consumer.

Ezung also pointed out that the Consumer Protection Act, 1986 was enacted to provide a simpler and quicker redressal to consumer grievances. The aggrieved consumer can approach any of the Forum or Commission accordingly: District Forum - if the goods or services and compensation asked for, does not exceed Rs. 20,000,000 (Twenty lakhs); State Commission - if the goods or services and compensation asked for, is more than Rs. 20,000,000 (Twenty lakhs) but less than one crore and National Commission - if the goods or services and compensation asked for, is more than one crore. Ezung further added that the complaint must be filed within two years from the date on which cause of action has arisen where the consumer can represent himself before the Forum without engaging a lawyer while filing a complaint.

KCCI President, Medozhatuo Rutsa shared on the various issues in regard to consumer protection which has been directly or indirectly affecting the general public. He felt that our rights and policy should be maintained where legal matters can be put in order to protect the consumer. He hoped that the policy making agency or the State Government will come up with good policy in order to address the issues, which our people faces today.

CONSULTATIVE MEETING RESOLVES TO SUPPORT RIIN

A consultative meeting on the exercise for creation of the Register of Indigenous Inhabitants of Nagaland (RIIN) of legislators, Tribal Hohos and Civil Society Organisations, NGOs and government officials was held at State Banquet Hall, Kohima on 17th July 2019.

In the meeting, the Tribal Hohos and Civil Society Organisations endorsed the decision of the State Government for creation of the RIIN and desire to support the initiative of the Government, but to give sufficient time to have further discussion on the matter and suggested the necessity to work out clear and practical modalities to be adopted while exercising the RIIN.

Chief Minister, Neiphiu Rio in his remarks called upon all the Tribal Hohos and Civil Society Organizations to cooperate with the Government in this endeavour as the Government alone would not be able to carry out this task and as such, urged all concerned to be part of this exercise by way of engaging themselves with the common people at the grassroots level.

The following resolutions were unanimously adopted by the House:

1. The House unanimously resolved to support and extend cooperation to the State Government for implementation of the Register of Indigenous Inhabitants of Nagaland (RIIN).

2. The House resolved that the process of enumeration for implementation of RIIN would be carried out only after consultations with all stakeholders and the final modalities/guidelines are agreed upon.

NE AT THE HEART OF ACT EAST POLICY, SAYS ASSAM GOVERNOR

'Development of North East (NE) has to be viewed not just from a domestic perspective but also in the context of neighbourhood of India; friendly partner countries essential to our vision for NE, which can contribute substantially for a comprehensive development of NE, India and ASEAN as a whole,' said Governor of Assam, Prof. Jagdish Mukhi at the seminar on "Natural Resources, Skill Manpower and Development of North East" at St. Joseph's College (Autonomous), Jakhama on 17th July 2019.

Mukhi said that the Central Government views the NE region as very vital for the development of the entire country and has put the region at the heart of Act East Policy, and in view of this, Bhutan and Bangladesh have already opened their Consulate Offices in Guwahati, and Singapore is in talks to open its Consulate. He also pointed out that Arunachal Pradesh, Manipur, Meghalaya and Tripura have been brought under the railway map and the National Highways and Infrastructure Development Corporation, incorporated in July 2014, is working with a special focus on NE.

On the State front, Mukhi said that the Civil Aviation Ministry has approved two helicopter services to keep the state headquarters connected with the district headquarters and under the Union Budget, 2019-20, Rs. 500 crore was allocated for rail, connecting Dimapur with Kohima. To augment air services in Nagaland, three new routes were taken up in which Dimapur will be connected with Guwahati, Governor of Assam, Prof. Jagdish Mukhi speaking at the seminar on 'Natural Resources, Skill Manpower and Development of North East' at St. Joseph's College, Jakhama on 17th July 2019.

Imphal and Dibrugarh and under UDAN scheme, construction of Greenfield Airport at Ciethu, Kohima is in the pipeline.

Governor of Nagaland, P.B. Acharya in his address also emphasised that unless NE develops, India cannot progress. He said that skill and manpower development should be the agenda and there is a need to bridge the gap of skill and manpower with natural resources, industries, trade and commerce.

DISSEMINATION WORKSHOP ON NUTRITION AT KOHIMA

A dissemination workshop on Study of 'Nutrition and its determinants and strategies in Nagaland' was held at the Directorate of Health & Family Welfare (H&FW), Kohima on 19th July 2019.

Principal Secretary, H&FW, R. Ramakrishnan, IAS in his keynote address, said the Department of H&FW and its allied departments should put in more efforts to study the key maternal and child health and nutrition service since it still remains weak in the state which may be caused due to the traditional upbringing, genes, climate condition etc. He asked the ASHAs and the Anganwadi workers to have more interactions with pregnant mothers as the state lacks appropriate knowledge and application of maternal, infant and young child feeding practices.

R. Ramakrishnan also added that the traditional Naga kitchen which is always smoky should be done away with, and should be fitted with chimneys. He also asked the H&FW Department and its allied departments to work together to save the mothers, women and children in all health issues.

Dr. Aarushi Bhatnagar, Health Economist, the World Bank in her powerpoint presentation noted that in 2016, the World Bank - financed Nagaland Health Project included a US $15 million component to provide technical and financial support to strengthen the implementation of the communitization strategy. She said that in Nagaland, only 36 percent of mothers initiated breastfeeding immediately after birth and 84 percent feeding colostrum to the child. She also said that utilization of key maternal and child health and nutrition services remains weak in Nagaland, suggesting concerted efforts for improving antenatal care for pregnancy and focus on increasing antenatal during the first trimester.

Dr. Atoshe Sema, Additional Project Director of Nagaland Health Project, who chaired the programme said the workshop has been funded by the South Asia Food and Nutrition Security Initiative (SAFANSI) and acknowledged the work led by Patrick Mullen and Dr. Aarushi Bhatnagar. He also thanked the UK Aid from the UK Government and the European Commission (EC), SAFANSI and the World Bank team for their contribution towards the workshop and the survey carried out.

decision taken should be guided by it. He encouraged the trainees and officers to inculcate ethical values in their everyday decision making so that it will benefit the people at large. Sinha reminded the trainees to reflect and ponder on their career, expectation and achievements as to how far they have come as government servants and also to set certain goals to bring some change in the society.

Additional Director, Angelina Tajen said that Chief Secretary, Temjen Toy realizing the need for training in these aspects, had initiated the three day training programme for NCS, NSS and NPS officers. Department of Personnel & Training (DOPT) has approved the training programme as a mid-career service programme for All India Service and added that states like Maharashtra, Meghalaya, Assam and Madhya Pradesh have already adopted it for the State Civil Service and included the programme into the curriculum for induction training of the probationers. On the concluding day i.e. 25th July 2019, Commissioner, Nagaland, M. Patton IAS in his closing remarks, said that government servants should not be deviated from their assigned jobs and must recommit, keeping in mind the ethics and values in decision making and bring transparency and justice to public service. He commented that one must be honest and become a productive member in order to maintain peace and tranquility in the society. Patton also highlighted about redundancy and non-performance in various departments which has become an important issue and needs to be pondered upon. He also highlighted the importance of RTI and effects of social media which sometimes goes beyond ethics of governance.

Niketu Iralu speaking on the topic 'A vision for Nagaland' said that Nagas must come together to work for the good of everybody. He commented that Nagaland is still a very young society and Nagas must identify and appreciate what we have achieved and learn to build on the achievements as a young society. 'The decisions and choices you will make in your fields of leadership will decide the quality of the society our people will inherit,' remarked Niketu. He also reminded the participants that they are a new breed of Naga society and with their right vision, commitment and passion, will bring the much need change in our society.

Commissioner, Nagaland, M. Patton IAS gave away certificates of participation to all the trainees.

ONE DAY MEDIA WORKSHOP 'VARTALAP' HELD AT KOHIMA

A one day media workshop 'Vartalap' on identified flagship programme of the Central Government was held for the second time on 25th July 2019 at East Gate Hotel, Kohima. It was organised by Press information Bureau (PIB), Kohima, Ministry of Information & Broadcasting.

Advisor, IT, Science & Technology, New & Renewable Energy, Mmhonlumo Kikon in his speech as the Chief Guest, stated that Vartalap is a mission for regional centre for interacting, and is an attempt to bridge the policy gap between the policy makers and the implementation, and also dissemination for the welfare of the citizens of this country.

Kikon expressed that media has given massive coverage so far, but there are certain issues that still needs to be worked on. He pointed that the power of internet which is growing by leaps and bounds, should be used to enable and make our system of governance easier and reach out to the rural areas that are still unaware of the central schemes. He also appraised the media to emerge as an ombudsman between the Government, communities and public servants in order to ensure that there is proper translation of the programme, objectives of the mission. He said that media has a greater role to take people on board, and appealed them to study, engage in a constructive suggestion to fulfil the purpose meant for the benefit of the community.

Principal Director, School Education Department, Shanavas C, IAS who spoke as Guest of Honour said that our State should be known for good reasons and success story. He said that in the context of Nagaland, there are so many remote districts and villages which are still unaware of the various schemes meant for the citizens. Therefore he appealed to the media fraternity to be a role model in educating the citizens about the schemes and projects, as development will take place only if citizens demand.

Director of Information & Public Relations, Limawati Ao who was the special guest, speaking on the 'Role of media in effective dissemination information on Centrally Sponsored Welfare schemes at the grassroots,' said that in today's world, many of us are incubated with social media such as Whatsapp, Facebook, Instagram, not realizing that many a times, the messages, images, videos about happenings, killings etc. spreads on social media within seconds, going viral before they are confirmed and it has now become the state of affairs. Calling upon the media personnel, he said success stories are very important, it may be a scheme in the block level but when highlighted, it encourages not only the beneficiaries but also the officers and staff who are implementing the scheme as they are recognised. It also encourages the other officers and staff in different blocks and districts to do the same, and the people of other districts or blocks can also ask for the same scheme, he added.

The inaugural was followed by technical session, where Additional Director, Rural Development, Imnuksihla Jamir spoke on CSS implemented by Rural Development; Assistant Director, Employment, Skill Development and Entrepreneurship, Zubemo Lotha presented a topic on CSS implemented by Employment, Skill Development & Entrepreneurship; and a representative from Directorate of School Education delivered a topic on CSS implemented by School Education.

STATE BIDS FAREWELL TO GOVERNOR ACHARYA

Farewell programme of Governor, P.B. Acharya was held at State Banquet Hall, Kohima on 25th July 2019.

In his address, Governor Acharya narrated the story of his first encounter with the State which was long before he became the Governor. He also expressed concern for the weaker section of the society stating that unless the weaker link is strengthened, the society cannot be strong. He said the universities should not only be centres of knowledge but should be centres of development, imparting skills and knowledge based on the needs of the state. He expressed hope that framework agreement will soon come to an end and pave way for peace and development. 'Nagaland can be made strong only by Nagas, and it was a privilege for a non-Naga like me to serve Nagaland,' Acharya said.

Chief Minister, Neiphiu Rio said it was an occasion to celebrate the tenure of a person who came as a friend of the Naga people, won their hearts and now was leaving as a member of the Naga family. Rio said his contributions in social service, education and humanities were already well known as he assumed the charge of Governor. 'Acharya will be known for always encouraging and facilitating private investors to our State. His genuine concern for the weaker and underprivileged sections of society is evident from all his activities.' Rio said and also thanked his wife, Kavita Acharya for being most gracious and said one of her commendable contributions was the manner in which she extended her vast experience as an educationist to the students' fraternity wherein she took the trouble to go to schools and personally taught the students.

Rio expressed gratitude to both Governor and his wife for opening the gates and doors of Kohima Raj Bhavan to all sections of the people. He said from the day they entered Raj Bhavan, the highest address of the State was made accessible to the real stakeholders of Nagaland-musicians, artists, students, sportspersons, writers, etc. including the weaker and marginalised sections, and Raj Bhavan emerged as a place of belongingness for all sections of the people, especially the youth. 'You will be fondly remembered as the People's Governor,' Chief Minister added.

Leader of Opposition, T.R. Zeliang said Acharya was not a stranger to the Naga people when he was appointed as Governor of Nagaland with additional charge of Tripura on July 14, 2014. Recalling the Framework Agreement between Gol and the NSCN/ GPRN which was signed on 3rd August 2015 and now joined by 7 NNPGs, Zeliang said Acharya had played his role in these important events first-hand which makes him an integral part of Naga history.

Deputy CM, Y. Patton described the Governor as one of the most active Governors that our State has had, and stated that during his tenure, our State had witnessed varied political instances which would have been a challenging scenario but in all those situations, Acharya proved his mettle by smoothly handling the political situations within the ambit of the Indian Constitution.

INVEST IN ELIMINATING HEPATITIS: PANGNYU PHOM

Minister of Health & Family Welfare, S. Pangnyu Phom gracing the occasion of World Hepatitis Day 2019-cum-Roll Out of Hepatitis C treatment at Naga Hospital Authority Kohima (NHAK) on 26th July 2019 said that Viral Hepatitis is now being recognized as a major public health problem in India and marks the beginning of India's initiative towards eliminating the disease as a public health threat. National Viral Hepatitis Control Program under the National Health Mission is one of the new initiatives by the Government of India. Initially, the focus was to provide treatment for Viral Hepatitis C along with various other preventive aspects like awareness generation, safe blood and blood products, injection safety and infection control.

Pangnyu assured that this lifelong treatment for Hepatitis B will also be provided under the programme very soon. Health care workers are at increased risk of acquiring Hepatitis B infection in comparison to the general population and hence, to administer Hepatitis B Vaccine to the risk group, this activity is taken up and is ongoing. He also mentioned that if a person has been diagnosed with Hepatitis B or C, one should speak with the healthcare provider about potential treatment, monitoring and curative treatment, and if detected early, the risk of chronic illnesses and financial burden can be averted. He looked forward to reduce morbidity and mortality due to Viral Hepatitis and to achieve the goal of ending it as a public health threat by 2030 in the country.

SNO, National Viral Hepatitis Control Program, Dr. Vezokholii Theyo in her address said that this programme was launched on 28th July 2018 on the occasion of World Hepatitis Day by the Ministry of Health & Family Welfare, GoI. Viral Hepatitis is one of the leading causes of death globally, accounting for 1.34 million deaths per year. Together Hepatitis B and C cause 80% of liver cancer case in the world, she stated.

Dr. Theyo also said Viral Hepatitis is not found only in one location nor amongst one set of people. 90% and 80% of people living with Hepatitis B and C are not aware of their status which can result in the real possibility of developing fatal liver disease at some point in their lives and in some cases, unknowingly transmitting the infection to others. With the availability of effective vaccines and treatment for Hepatitis B and a cure for Hepatitis C, the elimination of Viral Hepatitis is achievable and with the inclusion of Viral Hepatitis in the SDGs and the recent adoption of the world's first global Hepatitis strategy, we are at a pivotal moment, she added.

Minister, H&FW, S. Pangnyu Phom speaking on the occasion of World Hepatitis Day 2019-cum-Roll out of Hepatitis C treatment at NHAK on 26th July 2019.

CM LAUNCHES NEW CAMPUS SITE OF MOUNTAIN VIEW CHRISTIAN COLLEGE

Neiphiu Rio, Chief Minister, Nagaland launched the new campus site of Mountain View Christian College at Nerhe Phezha on 2nd July 2019. Mountain View Christian College was first established in 1991 under the chairmanship of Rev. Dr. Tseibou Rutsa. With the launch of the new college campus, the college would now be shifted from its old campus in Keyake (BSF Camp) Kohima to the new campus in Nerhe Phezha.

Neiphiu Rio while speaking at the launch event, thanked the members of the Educational Visionary Forum for doing such great service to the society. He shed light on the issue of unemployment in Nagaland and said that it is alarming to see Nagaland rated as the state with the highest educated unemployed youths in the country and that it is time for the colleges in Nagaland to train the students to be independent and look for other avenues of earning and tap into the private sector. He encouraged the students to work hard, be disciplined and committed in all their endeavors and strive to be the best. He concluded by assuring the college administration that the Government would readily provide any help possible to ensure the success of the college. Minister for Higher and Technical Education, Temjen Imna Along Longkumer also graced the occasion as the Honored Guest. He said that it is rare in Nagaland to see a public society undertaking such a noble endeavor and helping the people and wished that other societies would follow suit and help build a better Nagaland. 'Optimum usage of minimum resources for maximum output should be the new goal for us,' he said.

The new campus of Mountain View Christian College in Nerhe Phezha marks a new beginning for the people under Chiephobozou sub-division as it is the first college to be set up in that region. It will greatly benefit the students of the area as they no longer have to travel to Kohima or Dimapur in pursuit of higher studies. The college currently provides degree courses in all humanities subjects with future aim to introduce more subjects.

ACCURATE ECONOMIC CENSUS IS LITMUS FOR FUTURE PLANNING: WOKHA DC

Accurate Economic Census is litmus for future planning, said Manazir Jeelani Samoon IAS, Deputy Commissioner, Wokha, while conducting the District Level Co-ordination Committee meeting (DLCC) on 7th Economic Census. DC Wokha who is also the Chairman of DLCC, Wokha conducted the meeting at his office chamber on 2nd July 2019.

District Economics & Statistics Officer, A. Chubathung Ezung in his opening remark said that the main objective of Economic Census enumeration is to include complete count of all establishments located within the geographical boundary of the district. It provides disaggregated information on various operational and structural variables of all establishments in the district like number of establishment, type of ownership, source of finance, number of persons employed etc.

Economic Census also provides valuable insight into economic activities, ownership pattern, persons engaged etc. of all economic establishments in the district. Ezung added that this will cover all establishments including household enterprise, engaged in production or distribution of goods/services (other than for the sale purpose of own consumption) in non-firm agricultural and non-agricultural sector. He also said that the database collected also serves as a sample line frame for drawing samples for socio-economic survey by the Government and research organizations. This information is used for micro level or decentralization planning, and to assess contribution of various sectors of economy in Gross Domestic Product (GDP).

District Manager, CSC, Chenibemo Ngullie said that for the 7th Economic Census, the district has appointed 72 Census Enumerators and 27 Census Supervisors to conduct house to house enumeration, and it is expected to be completed within three months.

ADOLESCENT GIRLS CAMP AT MON

Adolescent Girls Camp on Information Education & Communication (IEC) and advocacy programme under National Nutrition Mission was held at Chief

Medical Officer Conference Hall, Mon on 23rd July 2019 under the theme 'Good livelihood.'

Medical Officer, CMO Office Mon, Dr. Elizabeth

speaking on the topic 'Awareness on health nutrition' and 'Anaemia' said that adolescence is the transition period between childhood and adulthood, a window of opportunity for the improvement of nutritional status and correcting poor nutritional practices. Any nutritional deficiency experienced during this critical period of life can have an effect on the future health of the individual and their offspring. Anaemia is the most widespread micronutrient deficiency affecting the vulnerable groups including adolescent girls which reduces the capacity to learn and work, she said.

Supervisor, Social Welfare Department, Mon, L. Amei Konyak speaking on the topics 'Importance of hygiene and sanitation' and 'Right age of marriage' said that early marriage (before age of 18) for girls in India is a violation of human rights and has an impact on physical growth, health, mental and emotional development and educational opportunities. She advised the adolescent girls to equip themselves with knowledge and skills to lead healthier and fulfilled lives. She also mentioned that, in order to prevent health related problems, healthy behaviors must be adapted for holistic development and better future.

More than 70 adolescent girls representing all Anganwadi Centres under Mon Block attended the function. The programme was organised by Mon Block Convergence Action Plan Committee under the aegis of Rashtriya Poshan Abhiyaan.
